will guarantee the supplier complies with the obligation in accordance with the terms and conditions of his proposal. In the case of non-compliance and the need to go to the next supplier, the price difference will be covered by this bond. The bond must be original. If presented through an insurance company, the bond shall be in favor of 'Administración de Servicios Generales'; and if presented by certified check or money order, the bond will be in favor of the 'Secretario de Hacienda'.

- c. A vendor must furnish a Payment Bond in the amount of fifty percent (50%) of the Equipment. Price to assure payment as required by law of all persons supplying labor and material in the execution of the work provided for the contract."*
- d. WARRANTY: Proposers must specify period(s) of Warranty per item, as applicable, as part of their proposal."*

III. For the percentage of Liquidated Damages:

"Attachment I: Liquidated Damages

As specified in Regulation No. 9230, Uniform Regulation for Purchases and Proposals of Goods, Works and Nonprofessional Services of the General Services Administration of the Government of Puerto Rico:

The sum to pay for delay in the delivery and installation of the Equipment or a shortfall in performance in no way represents a penalty but does represent damages agreed between both parties to compensate the Government for additional expenses and other setbacks. Vendor agrees that the harm caused by the failure to complete and deliver any of the goods in accordance with the schedule and any other delivery schedule set forth in the Contract is incapable or difficult to estimate; therefore, as a reasonable estimate of just compensation for any such failure, Vendor agrees that PRPA (at their option) may: (a) collect from Vendor or (b) reduce the amount PRPA owes to Vendor by the following:

A discount of half a percent (1/2%) of the value of the contract for each working day of delay; Moreover, the total amount to be deducted for damages shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the total amount of the corresponding item.
